There are 300,000 Sheep In Utah.

33,700 sheep and lambs were lost to predators in 2018. Up 6,400 head from 2017 for an estimated $5.78 million dollars lost. Up 29% from 2017.

In 2018, Utah Sheep produced 2.3 Million Pounds of wool worth $4,140,000.

Wool is 100% biodegradable.

The average fleece weighs 7.9 lbs and can make one men’s suit or 46 baseballs.

There are 219 yards of wool in each baseball.

Utah ranks 5th in the US for Lamb and Wool Production.

Natural. Sustainable. Local.

$221 The average value of each lamb or sheep in Utah.