Since 1923, the Utah Wool Growers Association has represented the lamb and wool-producing farmers, ranchers and livestock operators of Utah. The UWGA represents and supports its members in local, state and national issues that affect this vital agricultural industry.

Do your part in helping our friends and associates by becoming a member of the Utah Wool Growers Association.

Join Today!

Utah Wool Growers Association Dues

(Check appropriate box to determine dues)

Producer Members (Voting Members)

- Commercial $0.10 per head, $50 minimum
- Farm Flock $25 Less than 500 head
- Seed Stock $25 Membership in Utah Registered Sheep Breeder Association is an additional $30
- Perpetual Flock $15 Limited to 5 year contract period
- Feeder $0.03 per head, $50 minimum

Dues are annual and run for twelve months from receipt of application

Associate Members (Non-Voting Members)

- Youth & Student $15 Includes youth up to 18 years of age and college students
- Affiliate Members $25 Industry Friends
- Non-Profits $50 Includes FFA Chapters and Extension Offices
- Academic $100 Includes Colleges and Universities and/or Departments
- Business/Service $250 Sponsor
  - All Business/Service levels include Newsletter ad and Web Site link options.
  - Silver $500
  - Gold $1,000
  - Platinum $2,500
- Allied Complimentary - includes sister agricultural organizations

Please fill in ALL information. Make a copy of completed form for your personal records and send completed form and check to:

Utah Wool Growers Association
C/O Sierra Nelson
PO Box 354
Providence, UT84332